COUNTY TEACHERS HOLD AN INTERESTING CONVENTION

The Teachers' Institute of San Mateo county took place on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of this week. The first session was called to order in the Sequoia theatre by Superintendent of Schools, Roy W. Cloud, who spoke cheeringly. There were two hundred and twenty teachers on the list from high schools, grammar schools, and kindergartens to answer to the call. Nearly all were found to be persent at the roll-call, except Mr. Holland Frazee, who had been excused to go and get married; a couple who were sick, and a number who were tardy, owing to difficulty in making jitney schedules. The tardy ones came in time to be excused and so were the others. Those who stay away without valid excuses lose their pay for the week.

The first number was the singing of the "Star Spangled Banner" by all and owing to the martial air of the times ,the great national song called forth great patriotic spirit.

A careful survey of the gathering would make any one feel proud of the teaching force of the county. Superior intelligence, pronounced charm, and dainty dresses and hats were much in evidence. The high cost of living had made no visible effect. The reign of prosperity seemed to hold complete sway.

Many new, young and energetic faces were present and those who have graced other Institutes seemed not a day older. It has been said before that the fountain of youth plays for our teachers.

Mr. O. M. Carrington, who is the most popular man with the teachers, pleased more than once with a delightful solo.

Mr. A. E. Monteith, the new supervising principal of the Redwood grammar schools, extended to the teachers the welcome of the city. He said that all hearts and doors were open that it was sincerely hoped that every teacher would find the time of the Institute both pleasant and profitable.

Mr. W. L. Glasscock, the principal of the San Mateo high school, upon whom seemed to fall the burden of unpleasant duties, spoke a few words telling of the California Teachers' Association and the good laws it had succeeded in having enacted and he closed by announcing that the membership fee had been increased to two dollars, on account of the high costs of everything and that he would be pelased to issue certificates to all the teacehrs.

Dr. Lewis M. Terman of the Stanford University and Dr. Benjamin Kurtz of the University of California, were the principal speakers of the first day. Dr. Terman spoke of retarded and of superior children. Those behind their grades, the ban of all teachers were the hardest to deal with. He admitted that no satisfactory plan would be found for them until special teachers and schools were provided. Of the superior children, he said they were the born leaders in all lines upon whom the future depended and that careful attention should be given them to the end that they never learned habits of idleness through not having sufficient work to do; that they should be promoted, at any time, whenever they finished the work of a grade.

Mrs. Clara Cuthbert and Miss Masta Olsen, by means of a class of Hillsborough, gave an illustration of physical training which was quite wonderful. Such exercises will result in making healthy, strong men and women.

Mr. B. E. Meyers of Redwood City gave the result of his investigation along the line of need of vocational guidance. He believed there were many misfits in the world and that a number of them could be avoided by assisting the young in choosing a trade or profession.

Mrs. Wilbur sang a solo which was pleasing to all.

Mr. R. B. Kellogg gave a number of recitations from the poems of James Whitcomb Riley.

Dr. Benjamin talked on the need of better English. He said that the graduates of the high schools coming to him, were deplorably deficient in ability to write smooth ,compact, precise sentences. They did not seem to comprehend the meaning of the words and seemed to have but a vague idea of what they wished to express. To overcome this he thought it was necessary for the teachers in the higher grammar grades and in the high schools to insist upon more precision in the expression of ideas both spoken and written. If this is done the Universities will have time to do other things and our government will never again be so disappointed as it has been over recent national tests.

The second day was devoted largely to music. The Institute opened with "America"; Miss Margaret Daly sang a solo; Mrs. Jennie L. Gibson of Menlo read a paper on "Appreciation in Music"; Mr. George Wihr of San Mateo rendered a cornet solo and spoke of the benefits of school bands; Miss Vera Emerson sang a solo, and read a paper on "Music in the Public School"; Miss Anna B. Harris of Redwood City outlined ways of presenting music to children; Mr. W. L. Glasscock erad Mr. Holland Frazee's paper on the "School Orchestra"; and the teachers were highly entertained in the Alhambra by the "Love Pirates of Hawaii", a light opera composed and produced by Mr. O. M. Carrington, assisted by Miss K. Wolfenden and pupils of the Sequoia Union High School.

Miss Lauriston, of the Homestead kindergarten, gave a beautiful exemplification of developing the imagination, by means of a class of her little ones.

The teachers of the Redwood City schools under the direction of Mr. A. E. Monteith gave a reception to the visiting teachers on the high school grounds. Ice cream and cake were dispensed with true Redwood City hospitality.

Dr. F. F. Nalder of the State University, talked on what the University was doing to help those who felt the need of more knowledge. He said that gaining education through correspondence was increasing steadily. University correspondence courses are within the reach of all. The fees for each is $5.

The last days work was opened with the "Star Spangled Banner" and Miss Rue R. Clifford sang a solo.

Miss Elizabeth Skeel, our social service secretary, told of the careful work that was being done to make conditions better for the unfortunate. The latest proposal is to employ two nurses to help where it is impossible to get other help.

Mrs. Henry Ward Brown of Colma asked the teachers to assist her to get a complete registration of all the girls of the county between the ages of 13 to 20, so that they might be organized and set to work assisting our government and themselves at the same time.

A number of suggestions were made concerning our course of study. Finally a committee composed of teachers from all parts of the county was appointed to consider the suggestions and report next year.

Miss Florence H. Gaylord discussed the School Cafeteria. She was assisted by W. L. Glasscock.

Mr. Edward B. DeGroot discussed physical education a gave and series of views along the same line.

Miss Ebbetts spoke upon "National Conservation of Food During the Present Crisis".

Lieutenant David M. Crabtree of the Grizzlies spoke to the point upon "Patriotism" calling forth generous applause.

Closing the Institute, Superintendent Roy W. Cloud asked the teachers to keep up their Red Cross work. Last year he received one dollar apiece from 130 of them and that he hoped for $2 apiece from at least as many. This will insure the magazine for each one. He urged each one to invest in not less than $100 worth of liberty bonds and if it was not desired to keep the bonds they could be exchanged for vacation trips next summer.

Burlingame received the greatest number of votes as the place of the next Institute but it was not settled upon.

Thanking one and all, for respectful courtesy shown him during the Institute and all times, Supt. Roy W. Cloud declared the Institute of 1917 adjourned.

MALONEY GIVEN JUDGMENT

T. P. Maloney, who was made a defendant in a civil action for five thousand dollars, as a result of an automobile accident, by G. Bonfanta of Livermore, won his case in the superior court, before Judge Buck. Notice of the verdict in Maloney's favor, releasing him from all liability in connection with the accident, was received on Tuesday. Joseph J. Bullock, handled Maloney's case, and J. Early Craig and Tom M. Bradley appeared for Bonfanta.

Mrs. Carl Mabie and her three young sons are spending this week with Mr. Mabie's brother on his ranch near San Jose.

Mass will start at 8 o'clock and the Chaplain of the Council, Father John P. Ravanaugh, will be the celebrant.

She has been succeeded by Miss Eloise Lynch of San Mateo. Miss Hall is a graduate of the State Normal school at San Jose. She is a clever teacher. She will take a full course at Stanford.

CARRINGTON SCORES ANOTHER BIG SUCCESS

LATEST MUSICAL PRODUCTION GREETED WITH HEARTY PUBLIC APPROVAL

Again Mr. Carrington has been honored. The fourth time, he has been successful in writing an operetta that wins the people. His last composition, "Love Pirates of Hawaii", was given by the high school pupils before the teachers of the County Institute in The Alhambra, Tuesday afternoon. Nearly every number had to be repeated. The mingling of Hawaiian atmosphere and bold bad pirates made a unique setting. The pirates truly appeared bloodthirsty but the teachers liked them—they were good. All the parts were handled well, but at the presentation next Friday evening, everything will be better, any bad spots will be righted, and a fine performance may be expected. While the work of Jessie Duggan, Viola Kanein, Robt. Murray and Wm. Boos was good in their respective parts, the hit of the operetta was the "Aloha" song by Mildred Lamb. This promises to be one of the popular songs of the day. Better get your tickets and make erservations at Ryan's early.

The costumes were made by the Domestic Science department under the direction of Miss Edna Truman.

Miss K. Wolfenden assisted at the piano.

ASKS FOR GUARDIANSHRIP OF HIS BROTHER'S ESTATE

Joseph Ellis has applied in the superior court for letters of guardianshiyp upon the estate and person of George Proctor Ellis, an incompetent person residing at Pescadero and aged 63 years. Mr. Ellis owns nine and one-half acres of land in Pescadero valued at least $500 an acre and probably worth $600. Besides this property Ellis has a mortgage on realty owned by the Miles McDonald estate amounting to $2,500. Mr. Ellis is mentally incompetent to care for his property and needs a guardian. The petition states that Ellis agreed to sell the land for $500 an acre but that the party purchasing same land had an agreement prepared whereby the price was fixed at $400. Ellis feebly protested but finally signed the agreement and gave a deed to the realty and on Saturday last the instrument was recorded It is believed an action will be commenced to set it aside on the ground that Ellis was incompetent and mentally disqualified from signing the document. Franklin Swart is the attorney for petitioner who is a brother of the incompetent.

STEPHEN D. RUSSELL DIES WHILE ON DUTY

NOTED FIRE FIGHTER GIVES UP HIS LIFE IN SERVICE OF FELLOW MAN

Stephen D. Russell, the First Assistant Chief of the San Francisco Fire Department who lost his life while bravely fighting a fire last Friday afternoon, was a San Mateo county man. He proved himself a true hero by offering up his life in line of duty. No man could do more. He died bravely fighting to protect the property and the lives of others. Well may the people of San Francisco do honor to him in death and this they did by the big demonstration on Tuesday when his body was borne to the grave followed by sorrowing thousands who desired to show their appreciation for the great services the dead hero had rendered to the city. There were many who wept as the remains passed down Market street to their last resting place in Holy Cross Cemetery, Colma. Stephen D. Russell died in his line of duty. His memory will always be cherished by those who appreciate the deeds of heroes and their unselfish sacrifice. Mr. Russell came to Mayfield at a tender age. The family later moved to Menlo Park where young Russell attended school and grew to manhood. He learned the horse shoeing trade at the Stanford Stock Farm when that institution was at its best. He shod many of the noted trotters that were sired at that one time famous institution. Over thirty years ago he entered the San Francisco fire department and by hard work and close attention to duty worked his way up until he became the first assistant chief. It was his ambition to be chief and it is declared that in a short time his ambition would have been satisfied. It is said he was slated for the coveted position. He was one of the most skillful firemen in the department. Mr. Russell enjoyed a large influence in the political affairs of San Francisco. His advice was often sought by the most prominent politicians in the metropolis. The dead fireman is survived by a wife, two sons and a daughter, also two brothers, George Emmet Russell, a gauger for the government and located at Santa Clara, and Charles Russell, a member of the San Francisco police department, and a sister, Mrs. W. A. Doyle of Menlo Park.

Bullock appeared for Miss Duckenfield and Louis P. Dunkley represented H. W. Roberts.

NEW STENOGRAPHER NAMED

Miss Edna Clarke, of San Mateo, has been appointed by District Attorney Franklin Swart as his official stenographer. She takes the place of Miss Edith Carleton, who resigned the position two weeks ago. Miss Clark is an expert stenographer and typist and besides is a charming, courteous and genial young lady. Miss Clarke enjoys a wide circle of acquaintances at San Mateo and Burlingame.

ARMY VETERAN LEAVES TO TAKE PART IN REUNION

Mr. David Jackson, of Pescadero, was here all this week and on Thursday evening left for Vicksburg where he will take part in the reunion of the Union Vicksburg Association Veterans from October 16th to the 20th. Mr. Jackson was a member of the Thirty-fifth Iowa Infantry in the Civil War, having enlisted in the Sixteenth Army Corps under General Sherman when only fifteen years of age. He expects to return to Redwood Cty on November 1st. County Treasurer P. P. Chamberlain, who also fought at the siege of Vicksburg, is unable to attend the reunion because of press of business.

WANTS DEED ANNULLED

HUSBAND ACCUSED OF SHARP PRACTICE

WIFE BEGINS SUIT TO RECOVER LOANS ADVANCED FROM PERSONAL FUNDS

Anna Cuneo has brought a suit in the superior court against John Cuneo to impress a trust and vacate and set aside a fraudulent mortgage upon real property. The complaint alleges that between the years of 1908 and 1911 when she was engaged to defendant she loaned him from time to time sums of money amounting in the aggregate of $10,000. This was spent to improve defenadnt's property in San Francisco and to make investments. The couple was married in 1911 and some time afterwards Cuneo disposed of his property in San Francisco and bought a ranch near Halfmoon Bay consisting of 414 acres.

He told plaintiff that the realty was purchased in their joint names, but on January of this year in consulting the county records she discovered that the land at Halfmoon Bay was in his name only. Some months ago Cuneo gave a mortgage to F. Puccinelli on the property for $5,000 without consideration, so the complaint alleges, in order to defraud plaintiff. Mrs. Cuneo asks that this mortgage be set aside and that she be given a half interest in the property. Mrs. Cuneo has a divorce suit against her husband pending in the superior court of this county.

YOUNG BACHELOR'S BALL

Now that the Sperry's Grand ball is a thing of the past but will be remembered by all who attended as being one of the best dances held in Redwood City for some time, the dancers are looking forward to the eleventh Grand Ball to be given by the Young Bachelors of Redwood City Saturday, November 3rd in the Foresters' hall. The dance is being widely advertised and as large a crowd of good dancers as were on hand at their last event will sure be seen again on that date. McGuire's five-piece orchestra, known as "McGuire's Melody Fiends" will furnish the music for the occasion any every one will be assured of a good time as in all past events given by the club.

BROKERS ARE SUED

Joseph J. Bullock, as attorney for James Dobbie of Burlingame, filed suit against the E. S. Swann Co., brokers of San Francisco, as a result of an automobile collision occuring in July of this year at Woodside. The suit is for actual damages caused by the accident.

The dance given by the Sperry's baseball club last Saturday night in the Foresters' hall proved a big success both financially and socially. Everyone stayed until the early hours of the morning and enjoyed a good night's dance.

MENLO PARK BOY GOES WITH SANTA CLARA CONTINGENT

Going away with a smile and waving a farewell to his tear bedimmed parents from the rear car of the train bearing the Santa Clara county contingent to American Lake to train John William Greer departed Friday of last week from San Jose to answer his country's call and begin training for the conflict in France. He is the only representative of the well-known Greer family whose history is closely identified with the early settlement of Santa Clara Valley. The young man was born in Menlo Park just a little over 21 years ago. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph F. Greer are well-known and highly esteemed in this section of the state. Young Greer was proud of the opportunity to serve his country but no prouder than his father and mother who were glad to give their son to such a noble cause.

The young soldier is the scion of a pioneer family that settled in the Santa Clara Valley at a very early date. Captain John Greer, grandfather of the young man, arrived in San Fancisco on a sailing vessel in 1849. With a companion he came down the bay in a small row boat and reaching the mouth of the San Francisquito creek that empties into the bay he rowed up the stream for about a mile and a half when an Indian hut was sighted. An Indian maiden at the door was startled on the approach of the white men but being assured that they meant no harm they were taken in by the Indians and befriended by them. Later Mr. Greer went further up the creek and settled on a tract of land, a portion of which is now owned by J. F. Greer. The captain remained in this section until his death several years ago, save for a short time spent on his vast domain at Woodside.

Some time after his arrival on the banks of San Francisquito creek he met a beautiful young Spanish maiden who became his wife. She was formerly Miss Mary Louise Soto. She was born and raised at the San Jose Mission. On the morning of the wedding the couple saddled their horses and galloped down to the Carmel Mission, a distance of 200 miles, where they were married by one of the old padres of that famous mission, the favorite mission of Junipero Serra, its founder.

Captain Greer played a prominent part in the early settlement of the peninsula. He was justice of the peace at Woodside but held court in San Francisco, for this county was at that time a part of San Francisco. He rode a big black horse every morning to the city and came back every evening over the hill from Colma. In late years the captain loved to tell of the incidents of pioneer days.

Joseph F. Greer, his son was born at Woodside and there attended school. His marriage with Miss Haley a quarter of a century ago will be remembered by many in the county. The celebration of the wedding took place on the old Greer ranch above Woodside. It was a county affair and hundreds from far and near attended. The whole countryside was there. The barbecue was in charge of well-known experts. Under the wide-spreading trees young and old danced to their hearts content. The event will never be forgotten by those who were present.

The young soldier's mother came across the continent in an ox team train with her parents when she was a small girl. The boy may consider himself a thorough Californian and with such a family history he certainly ought to be inspired to do great things on the battlefield to bring added glory to the Greer name, a representative of which he is in this world's conflict. He is a brave hearted, fearless young Californian who may be depended upon to do his full measure of work alloted to him John William Greer will be heard from.

Last week Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Greer gave a parting testimonial to their son. A real old time barbecue was indulged in on the Greer ranch. Seventy-five guests partook of lavish hospitality of the host and hostess.

The site of the festivities was in the willows closely adjoining the history Embarcadero, a highway rivaling in its antecedency that of the paternal Alameda in Santa Clara county. In the days of the early padres vast pack trains passed along the Embarcadero bearing upon their backs the hides and tallow and other products of the section; receiving in return the merchandise of Spain brought to the Presido in San Francisco.

How eargerly the Spaniards greeted each arriving caravan bringing cheer and messages of encouragement to the new nation on the shores of the western sea. How different are the conditions of the present day when war-torn Europe greets the arrival of ships bearing our American soldiers bringing hope and encouragement to our allies.

Many expressions of God-speed and safe return were voiced by the assembled guests among whom were: Mr. and Mrs. William E. Haley and

MORE ENDURING THAN MARBLE

One by one the pioneers of California, the "empire builders of the West," are passing away. Soon the last of those grand men and women who laid the foundation of the splendid development of the state will have passed to the great beyond. And with their passing many of them will have left for themselves monuments more enduring than marble or granite.

Among the more notable of these was the late Mrs. Abby M. Parrott, whose death occurred during the past week at her home in this county. A woman of rare culture and refinement, Mrs. Parrott has devoted much of her time and means to the aid of that social and intellectual development which has secured for the state its splendid position in the nation. Though possessed of a large fortune and surrounded by the luxuries of life, she has ever evinced a feeling of sympathy for the victims of adversity and much of her splendid fortune has been devoted to that true charity which aids the unfortunate without ostentation. Truly the memory of such as these will long endure.

THE REAL HERO

No greater eulogy can be paid to the memory of any man than to say that he gave up his life in the service of his fellow man. True the sacrifice may have been in the line of duty, but this does not in the least detract from the force of the tribute. The true hero is not to be found in the man who achieves glory in spectacular performance, but rather in the man who daily and without ostentation risks his life that others may be protected.

Such a man was the late Stephen D. Russell, who bravely met death in the line of duty as an officer of the San Francisco fire department. And the example of his life is one worthy of emulation. Entering the department as a young man, by constant devotion to duty he rose from the humblest of positions to that of leadership. He knew that duty meant risk and for this was prepared. Nor did he fail when the supreme test came.

THE LOAN MUST SUCCEED

We must make this loan a success. We can make it a success. The failure of a single issue of Government bonds would be worse for America than a disaster upon the field of battle. We must never let that happen.

A few days ago I read the following manifesto issued in Berlin by the League of German Municipalities:

"If money talks, the President of the United States may learn by October 18, when the subscription lists close, that the echo of the new war fund given by the German people will have drowned out completely the clamor of unending protests to which his reply to the Pope has given stimulus."

Let us meet that challenge by a subscription to our Second Liberty Loan on the 27th day of October, nine days after the close of the German loan, which will make clear to the German military despotism that America marshals not alone her brave soldiers upon the field, her invincible Navy upon the high seas, her industries thorughout the length and breadth of this land, but as well her financial resources, and that she is determined to use them all without stint and regardless of sacrifice to vindicate American rights, outraged too frequently by German infamies.—From Secretary McAdoo's speech before the American Bankers' Association September 28, 1917.

The second issue of Liberty Loan Bonds will be of two kinds, registered and coupon.

The registered bonds will be registered at the Treasury in the names of their owners and will be of the denominations of $50, $100, $500, $1,000, $10,000, and $100,000. Checks for the interest on these bonds will be mailed from the Treasury to the owners each semiannual-interest date.

The coupon bonds will be payable to bearer and will have coupons attached for the interest. They will be in denominations of $50, $100, $500, $1,000, $5,000, and $10,000. The coupons can be cashed like a Government check at any bank.

The coupon bonds of this loan will have only four coupons attached representing the semiannual interest for two years. Between November 15, 1919, and May 15, 1920, the holders of coupon bonds must exchange their bonds for new bonds having full sets of coupons. These temporary bonds are issued because of work of engraving so many bonds with so large a number of coupons attached can not be completed within a reasonable time for delivery.

SUPERVISORS IN REGULAR SESSION

The board of supervisors met in regular session Monday, October 8th, at 10 a. m., there being present Dr. C. V. Thompson presiding, T. L. Hickey, W. H. Brown, John MacBain and Jos. M. Francis.

Miss Elizabeth B. Skeele, executive secretary of the County Social Service Commission, addressed the board relative to two claims, one of the Blue Bird Drug Store, and the other of the Eilers Drug Store, and both being for drugs furnished a needy family at San Mateo. Miss Skeele stated the members of the commission did not believe that the claims should be paid out of the Social Service Commission funds inasmuch as the case was a hospital one.

Supervisor Brown addressed the board in the above and explained that he had ordered the doctor taking care of the needy family to purchase the drugs, and on his motion, seconded by MacBain, the county auditor was instructed to pay the above two claims.

Supervisor Brown addressed the board relative to eight other claims for supplies and help furnished the same needy family, amounting in all to about $400. The bills, Supervisor Brown explained, had been contracted by the City Board of Health of San Mateo.

On motion of Brown, seconded by Francis, the claims were ordered referred to District Attorney Swart for a written report thereon at the next meeting of the board.

Tax Collector A. McSweeney addressed the board and asked permission to collect taxes outside his office. The request of the tax collector was granted, on motion of Francis, seconded by MacBain.

Supervisor Francis addressed the board and reported that a restaurant conducted in the town of Halfmoon Bay, under the management of James Beattie and under license granted A. Domenicia, had been kept open until 2 o'clock last Sunday morning, that liquor had been sold at that hour and that women were in the place at the time.

On motion of Francis, seconded by MacBain, the restaurant license granted the place, was ordered revoked.

Upon the request of Supervisor Francis, and on motion of MacBain, seconded by Hickey, County Purchasing Agent Ernest Werder was instructed to purchase the necessary material for a culvert in the Fourth District.

Edwin G. and Estelle M. Lawrence of Palo Alto and the Red Star Stage Line Transportation Company of San Francisco, who had presented applications at the last meeting of the board, were granted permits to conduct jitney services between San Mateo and Palo Alto.

Supervisor Brown reported that the bunkers at the Byrnes quarry in his district were in bad shape and needed immediate repairs in order to carry on some necessary road work.

Supervisor MacBain stated that he had inspected the bunkers at the request of Supervisor Brown and he explained to the foreman at the place just what repairs were needed.

It was thereupon ordered on motion of MacBain, seconded by Hickey that Supervisor Brown be granted permission to make the necessary repairs.

District Attorney Swart made a verbal report concerning the law on placing warning signs on the county highways approaching grade railroad crossings. According to the reading of the law, which went into effect in July of this year, it is the duty of the supervisors to install the signs.

On motion of MacBain, seconded by Brown, the installation of the signs was placed in the hands of County Engineer J. V. Neuman, the latter being instructed to proceed according to the directions of the law.

District Attorney Swart next read the law regarding the duties prescribed for county purchasing agents, showing how the latter officer shall make purchases. District Attorney Swart spoke very highly of the efficient manner in which the affairs of the local office are being conducted by Purchasing Agent Werder and he predicted that the auditor's statistical report for 1917 would show a wonderful saving in expenditures for the county. Swart suggested that some plan be worked out to take care of emergency purchases by the members of the board.

A communication was received from the County Social Service Commission in which recommendations were made for increasing and decreasing monthly allowances for different persons receiving aid in the county at the present time. The communication also contained a recommendation for the purchase of two railroad tickets to Salt Lake, Utah, for a man and wife residing in San Mateo and in temporary destitute circumstances.

Action on the above communication was laid over for one week, on motion of Brown, seconded by MacBain.

County Engineer J. V. Neuman presented plans and specification for 1700 feet of pavement on Mission Road from the Duck Farm at Colma to the city limits of South San Francisco. The plans were adopted, on motion of Hickey, seconded by Brown and the clerk instructed to advertise for bids.

FORUM, BAPTIST CHURCH

An address of great interest and profit was given at the formu meeting, Baptist church, Sunday evening, by Attorney Samuel Tompkins of San Jose. His subject was "The Banishment of the Saloon as a Business Proposition." He began by saying that it was the second time he had ever spoken from a pulpit; that he was a member of no church, and would speak on the subject of temperance purely as business—a good business policy.

He testified that one-half the crimes committed comes from the saloon. He wrote to the mayor of Portland, Ore., for statistics as to conditions there before prohibition and now, and received the following, among others: Court cases 158 now as against 365 before; drunks 2168 now as against 7870 before. The cost of feeding prisoners is 50 per cent less now. Boys before court for vagrancy 9 now as against 62 before. The saving in cost of prosecution in one year since prohibition came in is at least $100,000.

He referred to the revenue San Jose receives from its saloons—$60,000 and said that more than this amount would be saved in the cost of court proceedings alone if the saloon go out; that their health officer had reported that 80 per cent of their insanity is caused by drink. He mentioned an editorial in one of the dailies of Denver, Colo., which stated that the warden of their state prison reported that he would soon have a deserted house, as he was receiving very few prisoners since prohibition came in. The editorial declared that crimes in Denver had decreased since from 5 0to 60 per cent, and that the state had not lost a single desirable citizen under prohibition, but on the other hand had gained much.

He stated that the loss in production caused by the saloon is great, four out of five tramps being made so by drink. The cry from the government is: save the waste. And the source of greatest waste is the saloon. It creates nothing of value; it has nothing of good to its credit. The record is that when the saloon goes out the old booze fighters become industrious citizens. He defines the work of ridding the country of the saloon as not what is usually called reform, but just plain common sense.

STAND BEHIND OUR SOLDIERS

You are undertaking a great duty. The heart of the whole country is with you. Everything that you do will be watched with the deepest interest and with the deepest solicitude not only by those who are near and dear to you but by the whole nation besides, for this great war draws us all together.* * *.—From President Wilson's address to the soldiers of the National Army.

If the heart of the whole country is with the soldiers of the National Army, and it is believed that it is, the money of the Nation, will be back of them. The Liberty Loan is to be used to arm, equip, and maintain our soldiers, to prepare them for the conflict in France, and make them as effective and powerful as possible, and safe guard them in every way possible. In addition ,it will be used to give them life and indemnity insurance and provide for their dependents. The uses of the Liberty Loan appeal to every patriotic American, for it is used for our soldiers and sailors and the principles which they uphold, which the heart of the whole country it with.

The foundation of our great country is liberty; its superstructure, peace.—William McKinley.
